

7 THINGS YOU CAN DO

There are plenty of ways to make a difference:
(Don't try to do everything! Best to do a couple of things well).

- 1. Bring Rendition Monologues to your town/school/church/festival/workplace/conference/pub (!)

Rendition Monologues draws much of its power from its simple and direct staging. It is easy to produce and can be performed anywhere around the UK at any time. If you would like to host a reading of Rendition Monologues (or one of our other nine scripts), simply go to the booking page on our website to find out what is involved in doing this <http://iceandfire.co.uk/outreach/booking> or contact Christine Bacon, AFHR Director at actors@iceandfire.co.uk or Clea Langton Regional Coordinator (based in Sheffield) actorsnorth@iceandfire.co.uk. We can perform the whole show or excerpts from it, depending on your requirements. We're also really keen to hear your feedback about the play – please email Christine or Clea with your thoughts!

- 2. Donate to Actors for Human Rights

If you don't have the time to organise a performance, you can always support our work with a donation. This project greatly relies on contributions from individuals who believe our work can make a difference. Please visit our Just Giving site to donate whatever amount you feel you can offer www.justgiving.com/iceandfire. The great thing about this site is that your donation will automatically entitle us to 28% in Gift Aid from Inland Revenue as we are a registered charity. £50 suddenly becomes £64! The site allows you to make one-off donations or monthly contributions.

- 3. If you are an actor or musician - join Actors for Human Rights

We are always looking for volunteer performers for our growing national network. There are plenty of ways to contribute, from a single performance to producing a show. If you would like to get involved, just send Christine or Clea (details above) an email with your CV attached. Directors, producers, filmmakers, photographers and other 'arty' types also welcome! www.iceandfire.co.uk/afhr

- 4. Spread the word!

Talk to friends, family and colleagues about issues raised in Rendition Monologues and try to answer any questions or concerns they may have. You'll be surprised at how many people do not know what extraordinary rendition is!

As well as giving them the facts, encourage them to use their "empathic imagination"... what would YOU do if this happened to you or your family? How would YOU feel if you were treated this way?

Challenge any myths or rumours you hear about the issues raised by Rendition Monologues at work, in social situations, in the shops, on the streets or in the pub.

- 5. Network, join campaigns and support people who are detained in the name of 'The War on Terror'

Reprieve is a legal charity which offers pro bono representation to prisoners in Guantanamo Bay and also works extensively on rendition issues. Rendition Monologues contains the stories of some of their clients. Join their campaigns, go to their events, join their Facebook group, or donate to them! www.reprieve.org.uk

Cage Prisoners have a great website with all sorts of news and information and is regularly updated. Its aim is to raise awareness of the plight of the prisoners at Guantanamo Bay and other detainees held as part of the War on Terror. www.cageprisoners.com

Say No to Illegal detentions with Amnesty International.

Amnesty International is campaigning to challenge counter-terrorism measures that erode respect for human rights. Sign up to the campaign here: www.amnesty.org/en/counter-terror-with-justice

NATIONAL GUANTANAMO COALITION

This UK group organises actions and direct lobbying of the British government on issues related to Guantanamo Bay and secret prisons around the world. Groups are based in Birmingham, Sheffield, Brighton, Manchester and London www.guantanamo.org.uk

Join the Save Shaker Aamer Campaign

Shaker Aamer, the last Londoner in Guantanamo, remains unjustly incarcerated in Guantanamo bay, Cuba. The Save Shaker Aamer Campaign (SSAC) has called upon the British Government to demand that the US release Shaker and return him to Britain. The situation requires that, as a matter of urgency, high level political and diplomatic actions be brought to bear on the US administration. The campaign has a facebook group where you can keep in touch with campaign actions and ways to get involved.

✉ Put pen to paper!

Write a letter to Prime Minister David Cameron: 10 Downing Street, London, SW1A 2AG and/or William Hague (Foreign Secretary): Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs, King Charles Street, London, SW1A 2AA Also write to your MP: information can be found at www.theyworkforyou.com
In the letter you should:

- Demand an end to British involvement in extraordinary rendition and firm assurances, backed by evidence, that the UK is no longer involved in any way
- Demand that the British government secure the return of Shaker Ahmer (British resident) and Ahmed Belbacha (former British resident) to the UK from Guantanamo Bay

Write to the US Ambassador: His Excellency Mr. Louis Susman, Embassy of the United States, 24 Grosvenor Square, London, W1A 1AE and demand an end to military tribunals and the closure of Guantanamo Bay and other secret jails
